

Tri-Valley SELPA
Community Advisory Council (CAC)
PUSD – Bernal Room
January 23, 2019

CAC Committee Members Present: Lauren Soto-Figueroa, Varina Michaelis, Premjith Balakrishnan, Christina Maehr, David Bona

Participants: Nanette Gray, Correna Kelley, Carolyn Murphy, Morgan Pate, Rashmi Prasad, Mary Jude Doerpinghaus,

The meeting was called to order at 6:02pm with the CAC meeting participants introductions.

The meeting agenda was approved. Lauren Soto-Figueroa motioned to approve and Rashmi Prasad seconded the motion.

The committee approved the 12.03.2018 minutes with corrections. Motioned by Lauren Soto-Figueroa; Seconded by Morgan Pate.

Premjith Balakrishnan passed out “Resource Fair Planning Discussion” Handouts. The CAC committee used the handout as a guide to discuss each aspect of the upcoming Resource and Transition faire.

To date there are 40 confirmed vendors. The committee agreed there should be a limited of no more than 50 vendors due to space in the Dublin High School student union building. Morgan Pate agreed to help with the designing of the vendor layout.

Committee discussed the need to enter the student union building by 7:30am, to get the classroom numbers for signage purposes and to get a layout of the space and a map of the campus. Nanette Gray will work with Jennifer Chiarelli to get the requested items.

Nanette did confirm that the SELPA will provide coffee and pastries for the vendors and volunteers. The coffee and pastries will be supplied by the DUSD Culinary Arts class.

Meeting adjourned at 7:34pm
